About

Cultural Committee of Indian Institute of Vadodra is responsible for conducting various cultural activities that happen around the year. For conducting a successful event, there is a lot that happens behind the scenes. The Cultural Committee is full of such enthusiastic people who are ready to overcome any obstacle to make any event memorable. While many of them remain unsung heroes during those events but without their hard work and persistence, such grand events are not possible.

The Committee is responsible for conducting the following event around the academic year

- Kreiva - Annual Cultural Fest
- Nabhyaan - A Makar Sankranti Celebration
- Republic Day
- Independence Day
- Blood Donation Camp on Gandhi Jayanti
